Notices

Our Spring Adult Learning and Teaching course gets underway on Thursday 17th January. We are continuing with the excellent courses in the Pilgrim series – this time looking at the Eucharist. We will meet on Thursday Evenings at the home of Stewart and Janet Tate in Castlethorpe – transport from Hanslope can be provided and car sharing is actively encouraged. There is a sign-up sheet and further details at the back of church.

“ The next activity for our friends in the HO Diocese - AFTERNOON TEA and TALENTS

Saturday 26th January from 3pm – 5pm here in Church with light-hearted entertainment from local talent. Tickets are £7.50 adults; £2.00 children (under 5s free) from Mary Nokes, Julie Stothard or Hanslope News.

If you can help with making a cake or other goodies; serving tea or providing a raffle prize please speak to Jan Shipton, Mary or Julie.”

Hanslope Only Nativity DVDs can now be Ordered Please let Diane Gordon know if you would like one.

Mince Pies. - Hanslope Park kindly donated a number of boxes of mince pies that were left over after the Carol Service – of you would like a box of these good quality mince pies please take one from the back of the coffee area and make a donation in the “Ho Ho Ho” collection box provided

Please can we have some help after Mass to put up some tables for this afternoon's party and a team of people to blow up balloons (we have pumps)

Copies of the notices sheet are available on the hymn book trolley
